

4. Panzer-Division (4th Panzer Division)*

The 4. Panzer-Division was formed in 1938. It fought in Poland in September 1939, and in May 1940 it took part in the western campaign. In late 1940 the division supplied some units for forming the 14. Panzer-Division. The division was transferred to the central sector of the eastern front in June 1941. In the summer of 1943 it took part in the Kursk offensive. During the Russian offensive in the autumn of 1943 the division fought in the Gomel area and was continuously engaged in the central sector during the winter of 1943-44.
